Why is this Training Programme so effective?

This Training of Trainers Programme is both cost and resource effective as a means of training staff and service users.

We have delivered similar programmes and have had extremely positive feedback on the quality of such programmes with participants frequently praising: -

- The practical style of delivery
- The content of the training and
- The skills development focus

There is a requirement with this programme that the participants complete a yearly refresher to maintain the Joe Wolfe & Associates license to deliver the 2-day training programme. The cost of the 1st refresher is included in the initial price.
